

Volunteers, Board Members and Staff

The Canyonville Community Library is part of the Douglas Community Library Association (DCLA).

The DCLA is an association of seven independent libraries.

Working together, we are able to provide patrons with a full catalog of seven libraries.

Support Your Library

The Canyonville City Friends of the Library (FOL) dba, Canyonville Community Library opened in 2017 as a non-profit 501(c)3 corporation.

The FOL supports library services and programs, which enrich the lives of those in our community.

The Canyonville Community Library operates solely on public and private donations, including foundations, local organizations, businesses, and people like you!

Your support keeps our library open and growing.
